

Senator Greg Goggans

Senate District Seven

Greg Goggans was first elected to the Georgia State Senate from the 7th District in 2004. Senator Goggans, a Republican, represents the citizens of Atkins, Bacon, Berrien, Clinch, Coffee, Echols, Lanier, Pierce, and Ware counties and portions of Cook County.

Sen. Goggans is currently serving as Secretary of the Health and Human Services committee. He also serves on the Appropriations, Agriculture and Consumer Affairs, Finance, and Transportation committees.

Sen. Goggans was born and raised in South Georgia; he is a proud graduate of our public schools and the University of Georgia. He received his orthodontist and dental training at the University of Tennessee and the Medical College of Georgia. Dr. Goggans has had a successful practice in Coffee County since 1981. He has served as Vice-Chairman of the Coffee Regional Hospital Health Care Board, Chairman of the Coffee Regional Hospital Finance Board, and Secretary/Treasurer of the Southwestern District Dental Association.

Sen. Goggans is a leader in our community and a dedicated volunteer. He brings a wide array of civic experience to the campaign for State Senate. He has been recognized numerous times for his leadership to the community. Some of these honors include -- Rotarian of the Year, Chamber of Commerce Small Businessman of the Year. He also serves on the Board of Directors of the Douglas National Bank.

Sen. Goggans and his wife Jane have been married for 23 years and have four children. He and his family belong to First Baptist Church of Douglas where Greg serves on the Budget and Finance committee. He is known throughout his community and has received recognition for his service to others. He received the Exchange Book of Club Golden Deeds Award and the Loving, Caring, Sharing Award from the Georgia Foster Parents Association. He is a tireless volunteer for many good causes including children's summer camps, local athletic teams and church missionary work.

August 2006